I am broken
Got a problem
And my world is crashing down
I'm writing with the hope that my letter will be found
Don't expect you to read it
Probably got better things to do
I got no one to turn to
So I'm turning to you
I'm out on a ledge
I'm stepping to the edge
I'm at the end of my rope
You gotta give me some hope

Dear Oprah
You see I had to run away
Dear Oprah
And I ain't got nowhere to stay
I hope ya
I hope ya never feel this way
Probably got your own stuff to deal with anyway
Dear Oprah

It's shocking
What its come to
How my life is such a mess
How quickly you can loose it all
And I lost it I confess
Had a bad life, a bad home, and a messed up family and I woke up one morning and got myself free

Dear Oprah
you see I had to run away
Dear Oprah
And I ain't got nowhere to stay
And I hope ya
I hope ya never feel this way
Probably got your own stuff to deal with anyway
Dear Oprah

Dear Oprah
Have you ever felt like breaking down
When there ain't no one who cares around

Were you feeling this way
Back in the day so blue
What did you do

Dear Oprah

Dear Oprah
You see I had to run away
Dear Oprah
And I ain't got nowhere to stay
And I hope ya
I hope ya never feel this way
Dear Oprah

And I'm writing a letter, yeah
And I'm feelin' better, yeah

Dear Oprah
I hope ya never feel this way
Guess I'll turn the tv on and see what you got to say
Dear Oprah
