(Scherrie Payne)

Look in my looking glass
What you see is a flash
Visions of all my dreams parading
Yes, you opened my eyes
And made me come alive
You're the prince
I'm the girl who's set free
And you taught me the real meaning of love
You are the genie that comes when I rub
Magical city opens up to me
With you I'm living in a fantasy
Living in a fantasy

[Chorus:]

I'm living a storybook romance
I'm living a storybook romance

Catch a ride on a star
And go fly somewhere far
Wonderland is where we'll surely be
Fairy tales do come true
Since the day I met you
Happy endings are not for make- believe
Uh huh, you (you)
You, you (you, you)
You are the hero of my story, baby
Baby (baby)
You rescued me with loving glory
You charmed my grey skies into blue
And I get high on the things you do

[repeat chorus (ad-lib) to fade]
