What do I say
On this january day
When all my thoughts have gone astray
But I'm thinking 'bout you

And what do I do
When I'm black and I'm blue
And I'm still loving you
But I know it was meant to end

Oh, I'm missing you
Or maybe I'm just missing who I was
When I was with you

Oh love, oh love
Oh won't you come again
Take me in your arms and hold me
Make me feel new again

And how do I convey
All the words that I could never say
To you when you were around

Oh, I'm missing you
Or maybe I'm just missing how I felt
When I was with you

Oh love, oh love
Oh won't you come again
Take me in your arms and dance with me
Make me feel alive again

Oh love, oh love
Won't you come again
Take me in your arms and hold me
Make we want to laugh and sing
Make me want to love again
