Someday I will ask you if I was a disappointment
I will ask you if you put your hard earned money into a bad investment
You will tell me there are no guarantees but you
Got solutions for security
And I will ask you, I would ask you
How about my dreams

But you say life is a battlefield and you have Given me the arms
You say I have to fight
I have to keep moving on

Someday I will ask myself if I was disillusioned
I will ask myself, if I have proven
That I made it on my own terms
Yeah I may have suffered some burns but I am Living my dreams and am who I wanna be

But you say life is a battlefield and you have Given me the arms
You say I have to fight
I have to keep moving on

On this path that youve tread
On this map, that is yours
Well I have to say, have to say, have to say
That I cant fight your war, I cant fight your war

But you say life is a battlefield and you have Given me the arms
You say I have to fight
I have to keep moving on

Hey yeah oh oh oh
This is your battlefield
This is my life that youre asking for
This is my life that you wanted much
More then yours

But you say life is a battlefield and you have

Given me the arms
You say I have to fight
I have to keep moving on

(this is your battlefield, this is your, this is your battlefield)
