"Cry"

You're my sick friend
And you're always around
I know wherever I go
You'll be found

I've been happy before
I've been lonely before
But since you know me
I'm not anymore

Try so hard to shake you
Cos you're sticking to my skin
And in my mind I break you
But you've locked the door within

It's been enough now
The game is up now
It's getting rough now
You gotta stop now
Living in limbo is leaving me dry
Do you find pleasure in watching me cry?

You've got a secret
You don't want me to see
But deep inside
You can't breathe without me

You keep taking in
My sweet energy
You keep inhaling
The life out of me

Try so hard to shake you
But you're sticking to my skin
And in my mind I break you
But you've locked the door within

It's been enough now
The game is up now
It's getting rough now
You gotta stop now
Living in limbo is leaving me dry

Do you find pleasure in watching me cry?
