I can't believe how much you've changed
I'm asking you to listen to your heart

Where is the man I fell in love with at first sight
That tender man who always treated me so right
We are together but I feel alone

(Chorus)
Alone baby
So close but still so far from you

Hey where are the times we embraced
Without music we danced
Now you don't even see my presence

Alone alone hey
So close but still so far from me

In hard times it's so easy to give up
But if your love for me (if your love for me still exists)
I'm asking you (I'm asking you to listen to your heart
(For the love of God let's save our relationship
Let's save it yeah

Alone alone
So close but still so far from you

I don't wanna live in the past with you
Let's think about our future
Let's hold on let's talk
Let's talk
If your love for me still exists
Baby then I'm asking you(
Listen to your heart

In hard times it's so easy to give up
But if your love for me (if your love for me still exists)
I'm asking you (I'm asking you to listen to your heart)
For the love of God let's save our relationship
Hold on, don't give up

If your love for me still exists
Iâ€™m asking you to listen to your heart
