Are you saying
I broke your heart in two?
Maybe I wasn't looking
I wanted to know just
What you would do
When the rain
Pours down on you
Needed to know just
How far love could go
And now I know just
How deeply you feel
I'm not afraid anymore
Lovers locked in steel
Now I know its real

You give me your all
Till there's nothing left
Now that's what I call
True love baby
Now I have it all and
I give it all back
'Cause that's what I call
True love baby
True love baby

You know I can't live
With second best
Need the real deal baby
When it comes to something
Important like this
Who can chance
On hit or miss

Needed to know just

How far love could go
And now I know just
How deeply you feel
I'm not afraid anymore
Lovers locked in steel
Now I know it's real

You give me your all
Now that's what I call
True love baby
Now I have it all and
I give it all back
'Cause that's what I call
True love baby
True love baby

So many ways that
People fall out of love
I'm sure that we'll carry on
Lovers locked in steel
Now we know it's real

You give me your all
Now that's what I call
True love baby
Now I have it all and
I give it all back
'Cause that's what I call
True love baby
True love baby
