I used to look at life
In a shade of gray
Til I found some satisfaction
In the things you say

You took me in your hands
And like a piece of clay
You made me a man, now
I'm proud to say

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah

I'd wake up in the morning
And I'd wanna cry
Cause all my needed answers
Were just passing by

My feelings getting stronger
Each and every day
Lord, now that I've got you
All I wanna say

Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah

Hallelujah, come on
Hallelujah
Clap your hands
If you want to

Hallelujah, want you
To me sing to me now
Hallelujah, sing
Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah
Hallelujah, hallelujah...
