Anthony:

I have sailed the world, beheld it's wonders
From the Dardanelles
To the mountains of Peru,
But there's no place like London—!

Todd:

No, there's no place like London.

Todd:

You are young.

Life has been kind to you.

You will learn...

There's a hole in the world

Like a great black pit

And the vermin of the world

Inhabit it

And it's morals aren't worth

What a pig could spit

And it goes by the name of London.

At the top of the hole

Sit the privileged few,

Making mock of the vermin

In the lower zoo,

Turning beauty into filth and greed.

I too

Have sailed the world and seen it's wonders,

For the cruelty of men

Is as wondrous as Peru,

But there's no place like London!

Todd:

There was a barber and his wife,

And she was beautiful.

A foolish barber and his wife.

She was his reason and his life,

And she was beautiful.

And she was virtuous.

And he was—

Naive.

There was another man who saw

That she was beautiful,
A pious vulture of the law,
Who with a gesture of his claw
Removed the barber from his plate.
Th en there was nothing but to wait
And she would fall,
So soft,
So young,
So lost,
And oh, so beautiful!
Todd:
Oh, that was many years agoÂ...
I doubt if anyone would know.
Todd:
There's a hole in the world
Like a great black pit
And it's fi lled with people
Who are fi lled with shit
And the vermin of the world
Inhabit itÂ...
