We are criminals, we are animals
We're everything that you should be afraid of
We are the angry ones, the long forgotten sons
And daughters of a system that has failed us

We are rational, we are cynical
When faith is what we're left with to rely on
We are brushed aside when we step out of line,
Like this is something we should be afraid of

Failing from the start
Stabbing blindly in the dark
We don't know what we need
But we sure as hell won't find it here
We're just pissed off kids
Stolen slogans on our lips
Born and bred to lose,
There's nothing for us now but wasted youth
