Nobody laughing in the end
There're things I cannot comprehend
The night is full of stars
And you're not with me

Cut down another thread
If one isn't enough
If one isn't enough
Then do it twice

Yes I know what I've done
And what I'm gonna do
I know what I'm gonna do
Second time would be better
Better for both of us
(Better for both of us)

It's amazing you forget
All the lines you used to said
All the memories left behind
Fading away by time

Every battle has been fought
And everything I think was thought
I am lost
And can't ask question

I am lost
Can't ask question
I feel like going back to time

Yes I know what I've done
And what I'm gonna do
(I know what I'm gonna do)
Second time would be better
Better for both of us
(Better for both of us)

It's amazing you forget
All the lines you used to said
All the memories left behind
Fading away by time

Where were you then?
Who else was there?
Tell me right now
Are you happy?
How can you be?
Are you happy now?

It's amazing you forget
All the lines you used to said
All the memories left behind
Fading away by time

You're the reason
For my sanity

Where were you then?
Who else was there?
Tell me right now
Are you happy?
How can you be?
Are you happy now?
