Holding on...holding on...

Six o'clock in the morning
Still on my own
No messages, no phone call
Wondering what's going on
No matter what you do
I always wait for you
This uncertainty is killing me
Is it gonna be her, or is it gonna be me?

Go away, go away, go away, go away
(Holding on...holding on...)
Go away, go away, go away, go away
(Holding on...holding on...)

Eight o'clock in the morning
Still you're not home
Crazy circles in my mind
Searching for answers I cannot find
I still wonder why
I feel so warm inside
If this is love, I had enough
I've turned the page, I'm moving on, this chapter's done

Go away, go away, go away, go away(x 4)

Holding on....holding on...(x2)
