Couldn't help listening to your brother
All the time I was right behind the corner
It was hard hearing the things you said
I can't forgive the things - hard to forget
How could we apart so far from the question
Now I'll know I know all the answers
A hard way to find out what you feel
Now a wall of trust is coming down on me

REF.

Lost in tears
Lost in faith
Seems like I'm lost and amazed
Lost in tears
Lost in faith
Seems like you've lost inner grace
(Lost in tears)
(Lost in faith)

How couldn't we speak to one another
It hurts the most coming from your brother
Was it declare that I've find your jealousy
How could our friendship turn into envy
Now you say you didn't mean the things you said
I hope that time coming from someone there
Does it still matter you where just a shallow fear
Harder and hard, untill you be with me

REF.

(lost in tears)
(lost in faith)
