You can search for a thousand lifetimes
And still never find it all;
The reason The Maker cares for,
In spite of the seekers fall.
Love is the ultimate creation
From the heart of The Morning Star;
And you are the pearl that it paid for,
Knowing everything you are.

In the hands of deceivers
Love becomes a tool of war,
But still in the eyes of believers
The power of God is more.
But still in the eyes of believers
The power of God is more.

Searchin for love,
Searchin for love,
Searchin for love,
Searchin for love.

Love is the ultimate creation
From the heart of The Morning Star;
You are the pearl that it paid for,
Knowing everything you are.

Go ahead and misuse it,
It wont get ya very far;
Its intended to go with The Keeper,
The one who made you everything you are.
Its intended to go with The Keeper,
The one who made you everything you are.
Searchin for love,
Searchin for love,
Searchin for love,
Searchin for love.
