Looks like you're losing
With no one to blame
It's double or nothin'
But the odds are the same

You can make it
You can come from behind
You can make it now
Makin' up for lost time

Looks like you're fightin'
To stay in the race
It's harder than ever
Just keepin' the pace

You can make it
You can give it your best
You can make it now
You can pass every test

Somebody's keepin' you from goin' all the way
Somebody's keepin' you from doin' what I say
Somebody's hopin' you won't make it today

You can make it
You can come from behind
You can make it now
Makin' up for lost time

Talkin' to me now and I know you too well
I tell you the truth 'cause I love ya
So don't give me reasons why you can't carry on
You can believe what I say

You can make it
You can give it your best
You can make it now
You can pass every test
You can make it
You can come from behind
You can make it now

Makin' up for lost time

Somebody's keepin' you, oh!

Somebody's keepin' you
