Some say You're here
Some say You're there
But I just need someone to talk to Spend all my money and most of my time
I just need someone to know me

I've got to find out for myself now
'Cause I need You and no one else will do
I know that You're the one
I know that You're the one I need

I could be right or I could be wrong
I just need someone to tell me
Sometimes I win, sometimes I lose
I just need someone to help me

Do you need someone?
Oh, I need someone
And it's hard to sleep at nighttime
When you're on the run
Dreams don't take you very far
I need someone to hold my heart

I've got to find out for myself now
'Cause I need You and no one else will do
I know that You're the one
I know that You're the one I need

Well, I've been to the east, now and I've been to the west
Still can't find someone to lean on
But I'm like everybody, take nobody's word
I've just got to find out for myself

I've been banned in the north and burned in the south
Still on my way to happiness
And I'm conned when I'm up and I'm kicked when I'm down
Nobody cares when I'm bleeding
