Everyone I know
Needs love like drugs
Like a common cold
We could never shrug

My baby and me
We're missing the same stuff
We've all got a disease
Deficiency of love

Every day we still try
Every night we still cry
We're driving home on the 805

We don't know what we're doing
We do it again
We're just amateur lovers
With amateur friends

I can tell you what you're thinking now
Before you think it, you can settle down
We don't know what we're doing
Let's do it again, let's do it again

You tried to play it down
But it never stuck
I tried to build this town
I'm getting no such luck

When nobody's around
I keep my eyes on the clock
There ain't a cure I've found
In all my times around this block

Every day we still try
Every night we still cry
We're driving home on the 405

We don't know what we're doing
We do it again
We're just amateur lovers
With amateur friends

I can tell you what you're thinking now
Before you think it, you can settle down
We don't know what we're doing
Let's do it again, let's do it again
Let's do it again

We don't know what we're doing
Let's do it again
You know, we're just amateur lovers
With amateur friends

I can tell you what you're thinking now
Before you think it, you can settle down
Our loving isn't gonna burn us up

We don't know what we're doing
Let's do it again, let's do it again
