It wouldn't be so hard to sleep at night
if I could make a day without a fight.
I really think the world would be impressed
if it were equally as blessed.

Trying just to make through each day
sleeping just to pass the time away
I don't even know who to listen to.
What I need is a song to make love to.

Wasting years at alarming rates
I can't just leave my life to fate.
If I could just find a new career
one that involves a little beer.

Trying just to make it through each day
sleeping just to pass the time away
I don't even know who to listen to.
What I need is a song to make love to.

Trying just to make through each day
sleeping just to pass the time away
I don't even know who to listen to.
What I need is a song to make love to.

Nanananana...

Trying just to make through each day
sleeping just to pass the time away
I don't even know who to listen to.
What I need is a song to make love to.
