I only wanna make you smile
And you only wanna make my know
That you wanna see the way I love
And I only wanna let it show

I was young and new to the game
Now I move carefully
So won't you please be patient with me for a time?

While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
Who knows what I'll find
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
And troubles left behind-hind

You say you wanna love me down
I say we need to start it slow
(Start, let's go slow, baby)
I do wanna get into you
But there's so much more I need to know

Are you free, and worthy of me?
Gotta move carefully
(Carefully)
So won't you please be patient with me for a time?

While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
Who knows what I'll find
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind

Mystery, mystery, mystery

'Cause I'm the one
(I'm the one)
Who looks out for me, babe
(Oh, yeah, babe)
Gotta move carefully, babe
So won't you please be patient with me for a time? Yeah

While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
(While I gaze)
Who knows what I'll find

I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind

While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
(While I gaze)
Who knows what I'll find
(Who knows what I'll find)
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
(Troubles left behind, troubles left behind)

While I gaze into the mysteries of your mind
(While I gaze)
Who knows what I'll find
(Who knows what I'll find)
I hope that there will be some simple piece of mind
(Troubles left behind)
While I gaze
