I knew a girl and I like her still
She said she knew she would trust me
And I her will...
I said: ok baby, tell me what you'll be
And I'll lay my head down and see what I see.
By the time she was back
By her open eyes
I knew that I was in for a big surprise.

I knew a girl and I like her still
She said she knew she would trust me
And I her will...
I said: ok baby, tell me what you'll be
And I'll lay my head down and see what I see.
By the time she was back
By her open eyes
I knew that I was in for a big surprise.
