There must be something
You're up to something
You've never been so silently dreaming away
You silly cow
So many things to show
So many ways to know
Choose one, choose one
Won't you make a move?
I'm not so tired tonight
Baby, I'll try to stay awake

Oh, I'll surprise you sometime
With an easy rhyme...to the next line

I'm just a watcher
Trying to catch her
Waiting for shadow behind the window
I know I'll go to hell anyhow
Underground...
I'll never touch her
I'll never touch her
I'll never see her again
I'm so tired today
I cannot stand awake

Oh I'll surprise you sometime
