Everybody all around the world, stand up all my brothers

Joining our hands, united we're stronger

Fighting for peace, caring about our loved ones

Trusting ourselves, sharing our feeling, believe me

If only I could I'd make this world a better place

If only I could I'd make this world a better place

Oh believe me, believe

Believe me, believe, if only I could

I think about the implications when alone between the sheets

When all the huggin' and kissin' is tearin' my heart apart

All people standin' hand in hand, celebratin' all different colours

Joining together, sharing their feelings, please believe me

Oh believe me, believe

Believe me, believe

If only I could I'd make this world a better place

If only I could I'd make this world a better place

If only I could

Mmm believe me, believe me

Believe me, believe

If only I could I'd make this world a better place

If only I could I'd make this world a better place

(REPEAT TO FADE)
