"English Muffins And Irish Stew"

You'd never think they go together
But they certainly do,
The combination of English Muffins and Irish stew.
I must admit they're quite delicious
And so easy to chew,
The combination of English muffins and Irish stew.

I've tried macaroni and Spanish rice,
That's not so very nice, that's not so very nice,
I've tried French pancakes with German sauerkraut,
Now that's one dish I do without!
You'd never think they go together
But they certainly do,
The combination of English muffins and Irish stew.
The Mexican army is eating salami and onions from Peru
But it can't compare with English muffins and Irish stew.
