god see the children, not see all their scars
i feels the monsters i don't know who they are
when did this all start?
when did i fall apart?
i get to frightened to open the door
i can't stop shaking as i drop to the floor
when did this all start?
when did this all start?
when did i fall apart?
can hear me?
can you help me?
can you heal me now?
my hands, unfaithful, did not protect me
my voice, transparant, when i needed to scream what really happened during those nights?
and i could not move so i just turned off inside
when did this all start?
when did this all start?
...heal me now?
