I know it hurts, what you believe:
That everything is just as seems

The walls are cracked, the road is long
And I can't tell if their will is that strong

To force a change in the light to relieve you of strife
To force a change in the heart as it all comes crashing down

You never will see it,
You never will know,
You never will feel it,
But where did you go?

You never will see it,
You never will know,
You never will feel it,
But where did you go?

I see the fear inside their eyes
As they are falling, who will confide?
The ropes are broke, there's no net
And we are waiting for what's coming next
Will they land on their feet, will they simply give in
To the laws of the land, as it all comes crashing down?

You never will see it,
You never will know,
You never will feel it,
But where did you go?

You never will see it,
You never will know,
You never will feel it,
But where did you go?

Open up your eyes
Open up your eyes
Open up your eyes
Open up your eyes

You know you'll always be drifting
You know you'll never be found
A servant, so empty, you'll never make a sound

You know you'll always be drifting
You know you'll never be found
A servant, so empty, you'll never make a sound, and

You never will see it,
You never will know,
You never will feel it,
But where did you go?

You never will see it,
You never will know,
You never will feel it,
But where did you go?
