I see the dawn alone
Have a leash around my home
I believe in things I know
No matter where my head will roam

I see the best is unknown
I pierce along through my bones
For a friend I own
Luxury is a stone

I feel the lens has grown
Now the loss is here but you're gone
I recede from all I owned
As long as you're the one to loan

I see the best is unknown
I pierce along through my bones
For a friend I own
Luxury is to get stoned
