Sheila said To an open scene "I'd like to see you there Before you have to leave" She's coming up to score She don't know what it meant But now it pays the rent

I'd like to see What's in her head Staring down Until she's bent

She got up at night She had a bite to eat She's looking for friend Befor she hit the street

Expect what isn't real Lonely words should answer She's told how to feel

I'd like to see What's in her head Staring down Until she's rend I'd like to see it Until the end

She is falling, she is falling,...

I'd like to see What's in her head Staring down Until she's rend I'd like to see it Until the end
