"Thorns And Roses"

I close my eyes don't let no sunlight in
Just let the darkness be my muse
I close my ears don't let no angels sing (no angels sing)
Tell the world I'm too confused

Lay me down on thorns and roses
Loss of love is such a lonely process
Lay me down on thorns and roses
Lay me down, lay me down

I ride the waves but water crashes in
My mind alive with so much love
I vow to gain closure from within
It bears down heavy from above

Lay me down on thorns and roses (thorns and roses)
Loss of love is such a lonely process (lonely process)
Lay me down on thorns and roses (thorns and roses)
Lay me down, lay me down (lay me down)

Lay me down in thorns and roses (thorns and roses,
thorns and roses)
Loss of love is such a lonely process (lonely process, lonely process)
Lay me down on thorns and roses (thorns and roses)
Lay me down, lay me down (lay me down, lay me down,
Lay me down, lay me down, lay me down, lay me down)
