"Push"

When you said my heart is cold. I guess you thought I'd stop and turn away. Running up and down our road. Our honesty is a heavy price to pay. I didn't mean to make it so hard. You know me better. I'll try forever. You know me better then myself. Don't punish me like someone else. I may not mean that much to you. Doesn't mean that I'll try harder, too. When you said my heart is numb. I guess you thought I'd stop and turn my head. it's not enough to act the dumb. I'd rather keep it all inside instead.
