Please show me the way to another life, one where I breathe and it's not hard be myself, it's like a really bad dream cause I am stuck here, I can't wake up or get out cause it's reality

YEA YEA YEA YEA

Only you will find, the way to kill my light Please show me the way another life, depending on you was like taking a knife to my throat,
You have no answers but still you convict me, this time it stops the mental abuse stops here

YEA YEA YEA YEA

Only you will find, the way to kill my light
(Once I breath, I will break everything) [REPEATED]

You better run before I wake up

Your better off dead before I get you

You better run before I wake up

Please show me the way to another life killing the past I arise in a new light, wait cause there is something I must say i think if you died it would be easier to forgive and forget

YEA YEA YEA YEA YEA...

Only you will find, the way to kill my light
(Once I breath, I will break everything) [REPEATED]
