What will you bring me?
Brand new wings of steel?
I'm creeping back to life now.
Please don't follow me.
Miss understanding she's all I'll ever need.
The color of my blood is getting darker as I bleed.

Can we ever get close enough?
Can you please take these wings and make'em whole?
Can we ever get high enough?
Can someone please drag me up now from this hole?

Where's all the flowers?
They used to shine so bright.
Hiding in my castlesphere fright is my delight.
Don't get me wrong now
All I ever said is that we still can't tear those walls down
Until everything is bloodstained red...

Can we ever get close enough?
Can you please take these wings and make'em whole?
Can we ever get high enough?
Can someone please drag me up now from this hole?
And never let me go...
