There's nothing wrong with me,
There's something wrong with you,
There's something wrong with me,
I hope this something doesn't meet the flesh!

No more cry-ING for our next fix.

There's nothing wrong with me,
There's something wrong with you,
There's something wrong with me,
I hope this something doesn't meet the flesh!

No more cry-ING for our next fix.

Killers never have to fix,
Killers never have to fix,
Killers never have to fix.

We're gonna keep it under control,
We're gonna keep it under control.

Single files for today!
I can't see your choosen-made eyes!
Your crying walls are sliding the conjecture.
Hiden by the lights of poure conjecture.

A fall stuben love bond,
All flowing in the WIND!
Hiden by the lights of poure conjecture.

Killers never have to fix,
Killers never have to fix,
Killers never have to fix.

We're gonna keep it under control,
We're gonna keep it under control.

Single files for today!

There's nothing wrong with me,
There's something wrong with you,

With YOU and I well..

We're cry-ING for our next fix.

There's nothing wrong with me,
There's something wrong with you,
With YOU and I well..

We're cry-ING for our next fix.

Killers never have to fix,
Killers never have to fix,
Killers never have to fix.

We're gonna keep it under control,
We're gonna keep it under control.

Single files for today!

Single files for today!

Single files for today!

There is more... but I think you get the idea...
