Drifter

(Bolin/Coverdale)

I was born a rambling man
An'I never got the chance
To settle down an' get a hold on love.
Takin' Air, An' movin' 'round
Is all I can see that I'm doin'
As' it is bringin' me down....
Drivin' on a highway, going' nowhere
Desolation destination
Guess I'll find it somewhere
I know if there's trouble
I ain't takin the blame
That's why I keep movin
So nobody knows my name.

Born a loser,
I'm beyond the law
Woman behind me,
Never can find me
They can never get together
What I've been here for.
Cos' I'm the drifter....

Rollin' on....
Ain't waistin' my time no more.
