Where will you go now we called it a day?
What will you do, where will you hide away?
A meeting of the minds, it's so hard to find
A union of the bodies, happens all the time

You know that I, I'm gonna miss you
When I look at you, honey I think you know
We become too much to sail
With nothing left to say
I'm afraid, no where left to go

We are following a star
We're gonna say goodbye, try something new, oh-oh-oh
If I'm luckier in love than I ever was before
There's still a place in my heart for you

I wish you all you could want for yourself
May the road rise up to meet you as you go your way
If you ever need a friend, you just call me up and then
I will run to help you on the mend, hey

We are following a star
I'm gonna take a chance, something new, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
If I'm luckier in love than I ever was before
There's still a place in my heart for you

I'm gonna think about you each and every day I'm gonna wonder what your doing and if your still the same
You see the level head, it never went away
A-such a shame when people change, someone has to pay

We are following a star
We're gonna say goodbye and try something new, oh-oh-oh-oh-oh-oh
If I'm luckier in love than I ever was before
There's still a place in my heart for you
Only for you

We are following a star
We're gonna take a chance and try something new, oh-
oh-oh
If I'm luckier in love than I ever was before
There's still a place in my heart that's only for you
