Verse 1

September 30th a pistol was born
Ready to shake the world like a pin in yo arm
So ring the alarm hes outta da womb Zoom, he ran out outta room (wher'd he go) well, i would assume He's goin to make da world HARDER, Play with ya liitte daughter Pick up the phone, hes known to drop bombs like Pearl Harbor
The world outta praise this baby
From 8 to 80 in two days, hes grazin the gray mercedes,
And Fk u pay-b is his motto, told in da semi-otto now otto Kickin da ass like u seen rigato
And even if u got mo, he gon pop dem fo fo's and leave a nigga asleep with his eyes open, like he took some no-no's
Now he's on da grind most of the time watchin for Po Po's
Can ya smell me?
Its like ya can't, its like u aint got no nose
So if u dont like Pain and u dont like (like yea hes boring)
Dont even listen to the second verse to know the rest of the story
