Song: Change Today

Well ain't we gonna let us know what is going on?
Yeah people lie and so will I, and I still wonder why.
I wonder why, why people lie? Why people lie. I wonder why.

Well don't ask about tomorrow, tomorrow's just the same.

Yeah people die and so will I, but I still wonder why.
I wonder why, why people die? Why people die. I wonder why.

Well why can't They just tell us what will happen?
No They shouldn't have to lie. Well why can't They just tell us what will happen?

The Future lies right through their eyes, Right through their eyes, Right through their eyes.

Machine moves on until you stop it. Yeah you'll be unseen, you're riding atop it.
You're too young to kill, and you're too old to drop it.
So Change Today, Change Today cause We ain't gonna forfeit.

I wonder why, why people lie? Why people die, I wonder why.
