Lyrics by: V. Polienko & T. Horn

Can you see me now?
Can you see me now?
Can you see?

All this weeping in the air
Who can tell where it will fall?
Through floating forests in the air
'Cross the rolling open sea

Blow a kiss, I run through air
Leave the past, find nowhere
Floating forests in the air
Clowns all around you

Clowns that only let you know
Where you let your senses go
Clowns all around you
It's a cross I need to bear

All this black and cruel despair
This is an emergency
Don't you hide your eyes from me
Open them and see me now

Can you see me now?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?

Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?
Can you see me now?

Clowns all around you
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?

See me here in the air
Not holding on to anywhere
But holding on so beware
I have secrets I won't share

See me here pushing you
If I then deny I do
Contemplate or wish away
If I ask you not to stay

Clowns that only let you know
Where you let your senses go
Clowns all around you
It's a cross I need to bear

All this black and cruel despair
This is an emergency
Don't you hide your eyes from me?
Open them and see me now

Can you see me now?
Can you see me now?

Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?
Clowns all around you
Can you see me now?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?
Can you see?
Can you see?
Can you see me now?
