Black Heaven
Hold back the tears.
Your love runs loose in the wilderness.
Our silence pushes me under.

Soft whispering on the darker you love to me.
Like sunset, your love falls.
As sad times fill to your lurid love.
In darkness I know you...
The sunlight showers my rain.
Your movements obscure me, your laughter so lurid.

Darker my love grows...cold.
Darker my love
Ooh ooh I love you,
Like sunset, soon as your love falls
Ooh ooh I love you
Darker my love...

Lock me on cut through the ink clips
Your words..cut through my pain,
The starscream where we live.
Your arms hold hostage and knives.
A fire burns, our lips melt...
Your eyes..blacker than hell!

They call darker my love grows...cold.
Darker my love
Ooh ooh I love you
Like sunset, soon as your love falls
Ooh ooh I love you.
Darker my love...

Like heaven..hold back the tears,
Our love runs loose in the wilderness
Our silence pushes me under
Soft whispering on your darker your love to me.
I hold you, you tell me and scream "we'll never grow older!"

Darker my love grows...cold

Darker my love.....
Ooh ooh I love you
Like sunset, soon as your love falls
Ooh ooh I love you...
Darker my love

Like sunset, your love falls
As sad times fill your lurid love.
In darkness I know you.
The sunlight showers my rain.
Your movements obscure me.
Your laughter so lurid.

Darker my love grows...cold
Darker my love
Ooh ooh I love you
Like sunset, soon as your love falls.
Ooh ooh I love you
Darker my love....

Darker....
Darker....
