Verse :

You better fall back , nigga gon wit all that imma big dawg, got no time for small cats and i been known, most of you guys is all rap hide behind rhymes discised in all black im in the end zone , moving the chain winning the game not a ten clone saying my name to get in the game wait a minute homes , first of all let it known im bout that business homes so all the flexing and the lying you can kill it homes you just a cub imma lion (Dont forgot it homes) listen im out yo division homes my name written in stones on the throne that im sitting on long term like a great Britten homes spitting strong in a zone on the microphone im the sickest known everybody's ego i be pissing on getting blown riding thru the city on big chrome sitting under something that you thought i cudnt fit em
on anyway say we cut to the chase and get to straight nitty gritty homes
way you bitch and moan, like a broad you need titty's
on and im straight dont get me wrong, shawty i aint in to dudes

talk about your music not about me in your interviews seem like everytime im rapping, imma offending
and i aint thought about you, let alone mention you. . .
