"Color Is Gone"

Two hearts don't wanna make three
It's not time
He said baby I cannot believe that it's mine
No, no
She cried and held onto me
Said thought you'd leave
But baby that's just not me
You're all I need

When two fools are falling in love
There might be a time where push comes to shove

I can't believe that I painted a picture
And ten minutes later
The color is gone

I can't believe that I painted a picture
And ten minutes later
The color is gone
The color is gone

Looks like the sky's falling down
We should run
But baby the arrow is broken
On this compass

(Prechorus)
(Chorus)

Why me?
Why me?
