As you came unexpected
Times when I am lonely
When noone, beside me
I didn't realize it's you

You are an angel in disguise
Who gives me joy everytime I cry,
You gave me a great surprise
And for bringing me in paradise

Ask me how, ask me when
How can I resist being with you
The times I feel deeply so true...

Now that we're together
I can't ask for anything better
Inspite of any weather
Happily we'll live forever

You are an angel in disguise
Who gives me joy everytime I cry,
You gave me a great surprise
And for bringing me in paradise

Ask me how, ask me when
How can I resist being with you
The times I feel deeply so true...
