Hey, hey I need to holla at you
No, no this ain't gonna take long I'm a get right to the point Ya know, we been kickin it for a long time And year after year, I been puttin up with a lot of your mess
No sit down, I'm not done yet I don't remember at what point you thought you could play me
But you need to know the game is over and I just gotta let ya know

I'm breakin out, I'm feeling strong I've been going through this with you, for way to long
And I know what's up, 'cause I've been good to you So no more lying and cheatin, 'cause I'm through with you
