Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta
U making me full of misery nd all this anger
I could never turn my cheek and call u a stranger
Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta

Times is in the wind, slowly drifting apart Each nd everyday's takin away my heart til there's nuthin left
But memories fillin up inside like heavy rain
Til It opens up nd twist it down
That's wen u understand my pain
Out in the streets wid my bois we were ghetto ballin
even if we unplemmmployed
We all had it rough thru the ghetto years happening
But wusnt that enuff caught up in the love
Then u didn't even calm of love
Til your tears streamin down your eyes
Let your heart broken a promise like
Think about me in despites when you wonder why
Time change like everything relationships rearrange
Love is like a wealth people willing to cheat
Nuthin strange ever on me the cycle of peace
I wanted to give u love but never knew what it was
If I did I won't part the cloud nd let the sunshine hold u tight appreciate u ever Being mine.

Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta
U making me full of misery nd all this anger
I could never turn my cheek and call u a stranger
Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta

Them gangbang fighting I have never complained
I be happie u wus man but your heart I could obtained
But it's too late nd I'm in over my head
Im praying each day that u won't lie with the dead
But I'm in love with a gangster that's the way that it goes
Down wen u had money I wus down when u wus broke
No matter situation I wus there by your side Crying and pushin foolish tears fr0m my dark brown eyes
So what's is gonna take for u to open up to me

Swallowing your pride nd spend sometime wid me
It's hard to love a gangsta I can clearly see Wen your bois over there tell me, u needed me
It's 5 in the morning 'nd u still ain't home
U out wid ur bois in the streets alone Something inside is telling me that something might be wrong
No patient, no message, u ain't picking up your fone
What am I to do when I got a thug for a man
There's so many things that is hard to comprehend
I n0e I've always wanted a thug in my life
But this pain is killing me like a sharp knife...

Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta
U making me full of misery nd all this anger
I could never turn my cheek and call u a stranger
Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta

Livin this life as a thug ain't easy
Hard to find a girl in this world to please me
So I give my soul to u u give ur soul to me
Even though I'm never around alwais wid the bois putin it down
got you waitin catchin cases I noe it's hard to love a g
But even though I put u thru all this misery
U still here waiting for me
Nd sumtimes I wonder why all the bullshit I got u thru Having u feelin the blues nd u alwais still stay true
U have my trust that u will never throw a fit
That's why I give u my heart
Girl, never find a lady like u in this world U's my gangsta queen I'm your king u's my grl u's my everythang
My life is so---life widout u, feels so cold
I'm jes lettin u noe I'm alwais gonna be right here
Never leave your side so show no fear
U alwais show me that u care
That's why u my down ass shorty for life
U's my girl, u's my shorty, u my wife

Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta
U making me full of misery nd all this anger
I could never turn my cheek and call u a stranger
Baby u noe it's hella hard for me to love a gangsta
