"Chains Of War"

Million souls takes deathblow
Epic wars - fate and horror
Bloody eyes, names in roll
Warlords from hell buy your soul
Ache is reason for the life
Chains of war keep armies fight
Choose your time, be quick to dive
Remaining battle out of sight

Time is sand, so it will last
Groaning souls burn in the past

Terror there rules
Lose is disgrace
Any fault is death
No second chance

Ancient Rome destroyed to plain
Fascist mines do still remain
Art of war will never die
Making bodies in ground lie
We are involved in weapon race
Strong is one who has the best
Soon we'll die of mass attack
Destroying earth into the wreck

Time is sand, so it will last
Groaning souls burn in the past

Terror there rules
Lose is disgrace
Any fault is death
No second chance
