There you go creeping in
You're in my head once again
It's a rush at the tone
It's never enough don't you know
Come tomorrow
See your sorrow
Taste of heaven
All your living

[CHORUS]

There's a thousand reasons to leave
But there's just one reason to stay
My beautiful flower
You got the power
I try pulling on
But you keep pulling me in
My beautiful flower
My darkest hour
Think i'm giving up
Till i see you again

Where's my faint taking me?
Are my mistakes breaking me?
Here i come chasing you
In my own thought of you
Do i belong here?
It feels so wrong here

[CHORUS]

Like a cloud that's following you
The sun can never find it's way through
My beautiful flower
You got the power
I try pulling on
But you keep pulling me in
My beautiful flower
My darkest hour
Think i'm giving up
Till i see you again

I'm alone here

Feels so wrong here

[CHORUS]

Like a cloud that's following you
The sun can never find it's way through
My beautiful flower
You got the power
I try pulling on
But you keep pulling me in
My beautiful flower
My darkest hour
Think i'm giving up
Till i see you again

[CHORUS]x2

My beautiful flower
You got the power
I try pulling on
But you keep pulling me in
My beautiful flower
My darkest hour
Think i'm giving up
Till i see you again
