I hardly even knew you
You called me on the phone
Yuo took me to a movie
Now you wanna drive me home

I won't deny I like it
But you push it just a bit too hard
Yeah, yeah

You tell me that you love me
I've heard it all before
I really like your stories
But now I'm gonna shut thr door

Don't put your arms around me
Confusion is in my heart

Well, you see, I can't defend against your touch
I'm afraid I got to like you a little too much

It's my female intuition Protect me against your charms but drives me into your arms
My female intuition (Oh, yeah)
The woman in me let's on taking on the man in you

All the girls they tell me
Tell me you're no good
Guess they're all so jealous
Of the other thing they would

But there's a voice inside me
Telling me to not let go
Yeah, yeah

It's a competition
All the girls in town
I use my ammunition
'Cause I wanna wear the crown

So you better believe me

Boy, I'm gonna tie you down

Well, you see, I can't defend against your touch
I'm afraid I got to like you a little too much

It's my female intuition (Intuition)
Protect me against your charms but drives me into your
arms
My female intuition (Mmm)
The woman in me let's on taking on the man in you

It's my female intuition (Mmm)
Protect me against your charms but drives me into your
arms
My female intuition (Intuition)
The woman in me let's on taking on the man in you
You

Lovers come and lovers go
It's something every woman knows
Ever since you came my way
I'm doing everything to make you stay

It's my female intuition (Intuition)
Protect me against your charms but drives me into your
arms
My female intuition (Mmm)
The woman in me let's on taking on the man in you

It's my female intuition (Mmm)
Protect me against your charms but drives me into your
arms
My female intuition (Intuition)
The woman in me let's on taking on the man in you
