Here you are... again.sitting at our place with him.
Can't believe that you would be so cold
I know that you wanna be
With somebody new & that's cool with me
But this right here is just so cold

Didn't I give you all the things that I said I would
And didn't I take you to the places that I said I would
And didn't I give you the love that I said I would Tell me how could you go

And give my love away (6x Repeat)
So cold.

How could you give him all the love that I gave you How could you show him all the things that I showed you
How could you take him to the places that I took you
Your so cold

I'm hoping now my eyes to see cause this really can't be what I seel won't believe that you would be so cold.
The house we bought for you and I. the bed we made love is where he lies
But this right here is just so cold.

And didn't I give you all the things that I said I would
And didn't I take you to all the places that I said I would
And didn't I give you the love that I said I would Tell me how could you go

And give my love away (6x Repeat)
Tell me how could you go

And give my love away (6x Repeat)
Tell me how could you go?
