We're both guna cry tonight
We dont wana fight
We have never been that way
Its obvious we're losing this race
Its written on your face
So i guess i'll have to say

Im not trying to leave you in the cold, but its over, its over
And im not trying to tell you what you know, Its over

The hour glass is empty, and the time is up, and the time is up
The hour glass is empty, and the time is up, the time is up
Now all i need is, to walk away, to wake me up, to break
away
Now all i need is, to walk away, to wake me up, to break

Somethings become between you and me, and its hard to see through the weather in the storm It doesn't help for us to pretend its going n going n going n going n gone

Im not trying to leave you in the cold, but its over, its

The hour glass is empty, and the time is up, and the
time is up
The hour glass is empty, and the time is up, the time is
up
Now all i need is, to walk away, to wake me up, to break
away
Now all i need is, to walk away, to wake me up, to break

its going n going n going n going n gone (x8)

The hour glass is empty, and the time is up, and the time is up

up
Now all i need is, to walk away, to wake me up, to break
away
Now all i need is, to walk away, to wake me up, to break
