"Colors Fade"

I loved to see you in the morning
I loved it when you used to smile
I can't believe that we drifted apart
Oh, it's still not really to me

Of all the others baby, you know you are the one
You take my breath away, you take my breath away,
yeah

Living in a world that's fallen apart
Running in the shadows with no will to carry on
And the colors fade away
And the colors fade away

Remember we used to dance in the rain
Ooh, I swear it seems like yesterday
In another thousand years our love will still be there
Still be there waiting for you

Of all the others baby, you know you are the one
You take my breath away, you take my breath away,
yeah

Living in a world that's fallen apart
Running in the shadows with no will to carry on
And the colors fade away
And the colors fade away

Living in a world that's fallen apart
Running in the shadows with no will to carry on
And the colors fade away
And the colors fade away
And the colors fade away

Ooh, they're fading away...
