"Dream Of It All"

To proud to face your fears
As your holding onto tears
To late to turn back now
Nothing left to bring you down

Still your holding on so tight

Dream of it all
All through the years
Dream of it all
Hiding in your fears

Broken rules and ailing hands
No one left to set you free
You continue on and on
Searching for your dream that's gone

Still your holding on so tight

Dream of it all
All through the years
Dream of it all
Hiding in your fears

Being alone and lost most everyday
Too busy trying to find your own way
